

Hey - whatever to serving the public good and their interests?! Leave XM alone
- they are one of the last bastions of truly free and uncensored radio. Their services and programming are selected by choice and isn't choice one of the freedoms all Americans treasure?